The River Front Of Old Somerset House, As It Appeared In Shakespeare s Time After the original Picture in the Dulwch Gallery. Photographed by permission of the Governors of Alleyn s College of God s Gift Shakespeare at Somerset House. 19 specially appointed to wait on him during his stay in London, people chosen for their good disposition and nobility, who were to serve him as pages or grooms-in-waiting, as their Majesties did not require their services themselves. Among them was a group of twelve gentlemen in red doublets and hose, with cloaks of the same, embroidered in gold with the King s cypher crowned; and among these was one, more notable than the rest, who may well have been, then or later, pointed out to the Ambassador, a certain interesting individual, known to the King and all the Court, the intimate associate...
