Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Library of Home Economics, Vol. 12: A Complete Home-Study Course on the New Profession of Home-Making and Art Right Living; The Practical Application of the Most Recent Advances in the Arts and Sciences to Home and Health; Prepared by Teachers of Recognized Authority for Home-Makers, Mother My dear Madam: In beginning this subject of the Study of Child Life there may be lurking doubts in your mind as to whether any reliable rules can really be laid down. They seem to arise mostly from the perception of the great difference between children. What will do for one child will not do for another. Some children are easily persuaded and gentle, others willful, still others sullen or unresponsive. How, then, is it possible that a system of education and training can be devised suitable for their various dispositions? We must remember that children are much more alike than they are different. One may have blue eyes, another gray, another black, but they all have two. We are, therefore, in a position to make rules for creatures having two eyes and these rules apply to eyes of all colors. Children may be nervous, sanguine, bilious, or plethoric, but they all have the same kind of internal organs and the same general rules of health apply to them all In this series of lessons I have endeavored to set forth principles briefly and to confirm them by instances within the experience of every observer of childhood. The rules given are such as are held at present by the best educators to be based upon sound philosophy, not at variance with the slight array or scientific facts at...
