The projects included in our sample all reported diverse service activities that address one or more of these needs. While some projects service activities were focused on meeting a particular need within the community, such as housing, other projects activities addressed multiple areas of need, such as environmental and education needs. In the project reports we reviewed in detail, participants organized food programs that served 2, 500 children; assisted with totally rehabilitating 16 vacant public housing units; operated a 7-week summer reading camp for 36 children; planted trees, removed debris, and created gardens improving 32 urban neighborhoods; and provided parenting classes to low-income families. State commissioners and executive directors in all seven states agreed Officials Agree with senior Corporation officials that a federal role in the AmeriCorps Federal Role Needed, program is needed. None of these officials believed that eliminating the federal Corporation and simply allocating funds directly to state but Differ on Degree commissions would serve the program well. While some state officials told of State Control us that the grant allocation process warrants significant change, other Page 13 GAO...
