The Wig

By Charles Alan Wright

Mercury House, United States, 2003. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 212 x 144 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Mercury House is proud to launch the NEA Heritage Preservation Series, which celebrates the multicultural diversity of American letters by restoring to print unduly neglected modern classics of cultural identity. Our second title for this series, which will include an introduction by Ishmael Reed, is The Wig by Charles Wright. The Wig is the story of Lester Jefferson, a young man of good will, whose repeated attempts to become a part of The Great Society are doomed in advance. Aided, thwarted, and confused by numerous, curious companions, Lester conducts his inevitable search for happiness in a series of absurdist misadventures that begins with the transformation of the hair on his head into burnished silken curls. Charles Wright's Negro world explodes with the crazy laughter of a man past caring. . . . His style, as mean and vicious a weapon as a rusty hacksaw, is the perfect vehicle for his zany pessimism. . . . The Wig is a brutal, exciting, and necessary book. --Conrad Knickerbocker, The New York Times Charles Stevenson Wright was born in New Franklin, Missouri, in...

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
